Dedication

To

Samuel Page Duke, A. B., A. M.

This volume of the Virginian is dedicated as a token of our respect, esteem, and admiration with confidence that this selection will meet the enthusiastic approval of the entire sudent body.

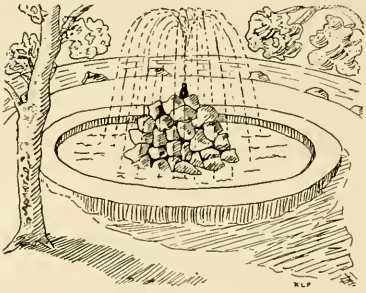
FOREWORD

WHEN days have lengthened into months and months have lengthened into years, Time will have changed things, but we shall have our memories still.

If, in that distant future, this little study may help to bridge the chasm between the years and to brighten the memories of happy days spent at dear old S. N. S., surely this, the result of our humble efforts will not have been in vain.

FAMILIAR
SCENES
AROUND
S.N.S.

"School Days."



"When will the landscape tire the view."

"Many shall run to and fro and knowledge shall be increased."

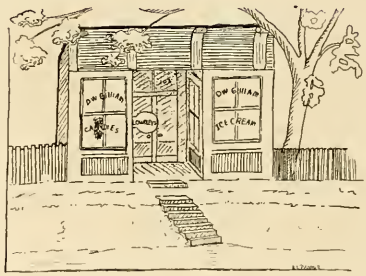
"Amid those tall ancestral trees."

"Here mark what ills the scholar's life assail."



"A haven of rest?"

"And hie hime home, at evening's close,
To sweet repast and calm repose."

"All roads lead to its Kindly rendezvous."

Our Tree of Knowledge

To Dr. Millidge

All Nature was to him an open book—
The hand that penned its epics was divine.
The heavens, with all the myriad stars a-shine
The sparkling ripple of the tiny brook,
Each had its place within his heart. He took
A rare delight in beauty—every line
Or curve in arching tree or vine
Was ecstacy; he loved each fern-draped nook.

A wondrous mind was his: from morn till night
He stored it from the ponderous tomes he read;
The world acknowledged him most erudite.
Yet plain and simple was the life he led;
To serve his fellowman was his delight;
And far and wide his gentle influence spread.

SENIORS
M.E. McATTS

ANNIE L. AYRE
Paeonian Springs, Va.

A quiet young lady, sedate
We don't know what's in her pate,
Not a word doth she say,
But on some sweet day,
We promise she'll meet her Fate.

IRENE AYRE
Paeonian Springs, Va.

Here's a quiet maiden named Irene,
The boys all think she's a queen;
For her face it is fair,
This damsel named Ayre,
And she's liked wherever she's seen.

SUE AYRES
Parksley, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Censor Ruffner Debating Society, Fall, '15; Second Vice-President Ruffner Debating Society, Fall, '16; Kodak Club; Blue Ridge Delegate, '16; Recording Secretary Y. W. C. A., '16; President Eastern Shore Club, '16-'17.

S—stands for strength and to me most sincere,
U—for the symbol of one she loves dear,
E—last of all means "Ever-ready."

ELSIE BAGBY
Portsmouth, Va.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority; Pierian Literary Society; President Student Government Association; Delegate S. I. A. S. G., Brenau College; II. A.; D. I. R. K.; O. H. R.; Benedictine; Nonpariel Tennis Club; Portsmouth Club; Assistant Editor-in-chief THE FOCUS, '15-'16; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

Bagby's one of those good old scouts who hail from "Portsmouth-by-the-sea". Entering two years ago she carried every thing by storm, and since then she has succeeded in winning for herself, a host of friends. It's funny, but she always goes around with a long face if anyone mentions a new uprising on the border.

MABEL BARNES
Amelia, Va.

Assistant Librarian Glee Club, '16-'17; Pierian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Ellen Richards Club; Amelia Club; Blue Ridge Delegate; Chairman of Music of Eight Week Club, Spring '16.

To her has been given the gift of song and when thinking of her we will remember her wonderful voice.

EVELYN BARROW
Rome, Ga.

Next upon our list is "Jane". She does look dignified, doesn't she? But heed the word of one who knows, she isn't as dignified as she looks. Jane is a "studious student" and as conscientious as you make 'em. You just ought to glimpse her with those glasses perched on her nose, and her head dug in a book. But lo! you should hear her laugh, 'tis as catching as the measles, altho' it doesn't take as long to develop.

ANNE HELEN BERLIN
Norfolk, Va.

Assistant Business Manager THE VIRGINIAN; Kodak Club; Program Committee Ruffner Debating Society, Spring, '17; Psychology Club; Mamabetosa Bromigrolees; Glee Club; L. O. D. A.

When anyone speaks the word Latin this hustling girl naturally pops into the focal spot of your brain. If she doesn't make a Latin teacher equal to Miss Rice it will be all on account of "Tommy". Anne is a jolly girl and goes at everything with a rush! crash! bang! and always comes off the victor. Do you love to waltz? Just get Anne to lead you through one and I'll promise a treat which can't be equaled.

MAY BLANKINSHIP
Naruna, Va.

Cunningham Literary Society; F. I. F. I. Lynchburg Club; Jefferson Literary Society; Senior Class Historian; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees; Literary Editor THE VIRGINIAN; L. O. D. A.

"True merit is like a river; the deeper it is, the less noise it makes."

She doesn't look as if she had the "pep" she has, but just get her on one of her "high keys" and she will make you laugh yourself silly; for with her jolly good laugh, and her jolly "odd" song, May strolls the halls. Her hair may not seem to lie flat on her head, but we assure you it is merely another brilliant idea "shooting".

RUTH BLANTON
Farmville, Va.

Recording Secretary Cunningham Literary Society; Ellen Richard's Club; Reporter of First Year Class; Vice-President of Second Year Class; President of Third Year Class; President of Fourth Year Class; Delegate to Y. W. C. A. Conference.

There was a sound of revelry. Ah hush—It is simply Ruth. Don't you recognize that old familiar chatter? I do wonder what new stunts Fred Jr. has pulled off, what "Bro' Frank" has said, or whom she has spotted for a new Cunningham.

BETTIE BROWN BOARD
Lynch Station, Va.

President Jefferson Society Fall, '16; Cunningham Literary Society; Bible Study Committee; Y. W. C. A.

"She will, and she will not; she grants, denies, consents, retracts, advances, and then flies".

Bold, brave, beloved, benevolent, bright, busy Betty Brown Board began broadening by beautiful behavior; believing badness blocked best brilliancy. Betty betters business by bewaring blarney, but befriending bepraisement. Between busy battles B. B. B. bashfully blushes because billetdoux bring bewitching bewilderments.

MARTHA KATHLEEN BONDURANT
Rice, Va.

Ellen Richard's Club; R. S. T.

You admire "Dolly?" Of course you do. She has that rare gift of telling you exactly what she thinks. She is democratic, too, in her views. Why? Because she is so much in favor of "Wilson" Sh—!

MARIA LOUISE BONDURANT
Farmville, Va.

Argus Literary Society; Jefferson Society; Vice-President French Club, '15-'16; Reporter French Club, '16, '17; Ellen Richards Club; Camp Fire; Mametosa Bromigrolees.

Here is another brown-eyed Susan who is the busiest of all busy Seniors. Most of her time is spent in demanding of those third year girls, "In 'est-ce que c'est"? If anybody is hunting for a Domestic Science expert just get Louise to let you taste one of those flakey-light-as-thistledown biscuit that she makes. She, will surely get the job!

GRACE W. BONNEY
Norfolk, Va.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority; Pierian Literary Society; Cotillion Club.

Grace is a cute little girl,
In fact she's awfully sweet
And dainty and light and spry
Especially on her feet.
For if you'd see her dancing,
Then we'd have to warn,
Lest she should dance into your heart
And take it all by storm.

MAIE EVELYN BRINKLEY
Suffolk, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; Cotillion Club; B. O. M. O.; E. A. T. S.

Maie is a tall, striking, looking girl, and oh! how she can "trip it on the light fantastic toe". This is a secret, Maie is very conscientious 'cause she just will report to student government headquarters every night after light bell. There! the cat is out of the bag by the time I've said a word. All in all, she is a dead game sport, and a good old pal.

MARY ELIZA BRINKLEY
Suffolk, Va.

Argus Literary Society; Buffalo Camp Fire Girl; Membership Committee of Y. W. C. A.; Spree Club.

If you by chance should want to meet
A girl who is always pleasant and sweet,
I am sure that you would also find
In Mary one who is very kind.

YATES BROWNE
Portsmouth, Va.

Portsmouth Club; Tanda Camp Fire; Towngirls' Committee, Y. W. C. A.

"She hath a pleasant word
And smile for every one".

Here is a little brown-eyed girl with brown hair, and a Brown (e) name. Her motto must be for everything to harmonize. If this is the case, Yates certainly has one quality that so many of us lack. Her failing is talking too much (?) and staying in the hall after light bell. As we know her worth and willingness to help others, we will not be surprised to hear of great deeds accomplished by her in the future.

HILDRER D. BULIFANT
Hampton, Va.

Blue Ridge Delegation Club; President Ruffner Debating Society, Fall, '16; Hampton Club; Bifo Cacoclu; Deutscher Sprach-Verein; Ellen Richards Club; Wah-wah-tay-see Camp Fire; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

"True hearted, whole-hearted, Faithful and loyal".

There are so many nice things that can be said of Hildred that I hardly know what to say, but briefly; "To know her is to love her".

BESSIE ROYAL BURGESS
Capron, Va.

Ruffner Debating Society; Southhampton Club; I. K. U. Club; Kindergartner.

"She ever doeth well her duty."

HELEN MITCHELL CAHILL
Norfolk, Va.

Gamma Theta Sorority; President Athenian Literary Society, Fall, '16; Mu Omega; Nonpariel Tennis Club; D. I. R. K.; Student Committee, '15-'16, '16-'17; Cotillion Club; Corresponding Secretary Athenian Literary Society, Spring, '17; Captain Junior Basketball Team, '15-'16; Captain Senior Basketball Team, '16-'17; B. A.

Here is Cahill—one of the biggest girls in school—a versatile creation of action, mirth and seriousness. She is the B. B. champion of the year, captain of the brigade, and the "Do as I say" of the Athenians, so she needs very little puffing here. Here's hoping that a good scholar, a broad thinker, and a grand girl will not be offended.

GLADYS WHISNER CANTER
Philippi, W. Va.

B. E. A. N. S.; Argus Literary Society; President Champion Tennis Club; Treasurer Buffalo Camp Fire, Fall, '16; Jefferson Society; Ellen Richards Club; Town Girls' Committee, Y. W. C. A., '16-'17; L. D. K.

If you want to find a true friend look for "Glad". She has a smile for everyone, and is very sincere. Her loving disposition wins numerous friends for her wherever she goes. She'll make a very successful teacher if she doesn't change her course in life.

JEANNETTE BOARDMAN GARNEY
Deanes, Va.

Kindergartner; Glee Club; I. K. U. Club; Censor Pierian Literary Society, Fall, '16; W. A. N. K.

"O wad some power the giftie gie us
To see oursels as ithers see us"!

Wearied of shams, insincerity, and flattery, we seek Jean; and here we find plain truth without any of the so called permissible disguises.

The plain truth about one's self, when presented by one whose charm of personality is a predominating characteristic, makes this truth doubly welcome.

MATTIE MOZELLE CARTER
Rice, Va.

Ellen Richard's Club; R. S. T.

Yes, everybody knows Mattie, our little rural teacher—and who said she's bashful? Well, you just ought to see her on the train each day as she goes to and from Rice. You see you can't always trust a modest downcast eye. In spite of this dreadful habit, Mattie is a charming girl, and we can't help admiring her sweet ways.

FANNIE MELVA CARTER
Rice, Va.

Ellen Richard's Club; R. S. T.; Ruffner Debating Society.

A lovable girl whom every one likes, true up and down, through and through. She is a good teacher, but ask Mrs. Harris if you think she will teach very long. She knows because she records the dates both Friday and Sunday nights.

MAMIE DANIEL CARWILE
Madisonville, Va.

Glee Club; Cunningham Literary Society.

Mamie is one of those lovable girls you are always glad to know, and never forget. She likes to laugh, play, and sing, and most of all she likes to teach in the 2nd. grade. I can't tell which she loves the best, her supervisors, St. Elmo, or (?). Does she expect to teach school? If her room mate knows and understands aright she is "surveying" another vocation.

MYRTIS CHAPIN
Blackstone, Va.

Kindergartner; I. K. U.

Does this little girl with a saucy curl look like a very serious person? Well, she can be when she wants to, and she also knows how to help a fellow out of trouble.

SARA CHARTERS
Norfolk, Va.

"A kind and gentle heart she had to comfort friends and foes".

Sarah is noted for her pretty brown eyes, and ability to "case". She is the most fickle girl in the class, and doesn't (?) mind people saying so. Her worst faults are staying up after light bell and getting up at 7:30. However the training school is improving these and we anticipate that by June, Sarah will be an "ideal School ma'am."

MATILDA CLARK
Washington, Va.

Y. W. C. A.; Jefferson Society; Glee Club; Camp Fire.

"True wit is nature to advantage dressed;
What oft was sought, but ne'er so well expressed".

Who can forget Tillie, with her innocent pranks and merry fun-loving nature. When you feel yourself growing angry at one of her pranks, you are instantly disarmed by her mischievous, "I didn't mean to done it".

MARION ELLIOT COBB
Suffolk, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; Town Girls' Membership Committee Y. W. C. A.; B. O. M. O.; Buffalo Camp Fire Group; Spree Club.

Many happy days have passed and gone,
And still we stand to-gether;
Rich in love for friends she's won
I know no honor better.
Oh to always have her with us,
Never to break this chain of trust.

ALINE CHRISTIAN COLE
Roanoke, Va.

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; Benedictine; Corresponding Secretary Cunningham Literary Society Fall, '16; Delta; Spree Club; Love Set Tennis Club; Bible Study Committee Y. W. C. A.

"Sentimentally I am disposed to harmony—
But organically I am incapable of a tune."

Here is a girl who is entirely indifferent to school and its worries when there is any pleasure in view. The fact that the gay social world has its demoralizing effects, is shown by her late arrival at classes. Though she has an inclination for the arts, they are quite overshadowed by her love for pleasure.

Aline is a fine teacher, especially of music, but much to Gyp's disgust, her singing is always flat.

RUTH E. COOKE.

President Argus Literary Society Fall, '16-'17; Corresponding Secretary Arugus Literary Spring, '16; Treasurer Alleghany County Club, '16; Assistant Art Editor THE VIRGINIAN; Senior Basket Ball Team; W. A. N. K.; Spree Club; B. A.

In case you haven't been to S. N. S., I am going to tell you that Cookie is one of those Covington girls, which means that Harrison Fisher isn't in it. She is most affectionate, I've been told, and is even said to be just a little—fickle????, so it is pretty hard to keep up with her carryings on. But with it all Cookie is a good old sport and you are exceedingly fortunate to be able to call her your friend.

RUTH RAWLINS COOKE
Norfolk, Va.

Argus Literary Society; Glee Club.

Regardless of all the trials and joys that we have to bear at S. N. S. Ruth passes thru all with a cheerful smile and an "Oh well"! She fully enjoys life, so nothing worries her. Ruth is very fond of music and a few other subjects. However, most of her time she watches the birds "Peck" in the "Fields" of "Main".

ANN EDWARD COPPS
Schuyler, Va.

Kindergartener; Arts and Crafts Club; Treasurer of Jefferson Society, '16-'17; Psychology Club.

Eddie always cops all of our hearts. Miles of merriment is exactly what she is. She thinks her vocation is to lead little kidlets and certainly does it too. Her favorite saying is, "Come on lets talk about O—" And like the dog, thereby hangs a tale.

LUCILLE RAYMOND COTTON
Portsmouth, Va.

Tanda Camp Fire; Athenian Literary Society; Portsmouth Club; Missionary Giving Committee, Y. W. C. A.

"Beauty and virtue shine forever 'round thee".

This certainly applies to Lucille Cotton (seed), for she is one of the S. N. S. beauties. Her big brown eyes would capture 'most any man, especially Luther (ans). Her chief occupation is studying and this results in "A" tickets. Lucile is a great worker and succeeds in whatever she undertakes, so we have no fear that she will not succeed as a school ma'am.

HELEN COVERSTON
Saltville, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; President Glee Club, '16-'17; Nonpariel Tennis Club; B. E. A. N. S.; Music Committee, Y. W. C. A.

In our opinion Helen is one of the most charming girls in school. Possessed of a rare beauty and an unusual musical ability, she has been the recipient of many complimentary remarks. She has never been heard to say a word against any one, and no one has ever been heard to say a word against her. What more can be said in her favor?

ESTHER ALMEDA COVINGTON
New Church, Va.

Vice-President Fourth Year Class; Treasurer Normal League, '14-'15; Membership Committee Y. W. C. A., '14-'15; Chairman Mission Giving Committee Y. W. C. A., '15-'16; Treasurer Ellen Richards Club; Reporter Junior Class; Blue Ridge Delegate '16; Junior Vice-President Student Government Association; Critic Athenian Litterary Society Fall, '16; Senior Vice-President Student Government Association; Eastern Shore Club; Arts and Crafts Club; Ad Kiya Camp Fire; Recording Secretary Athenian Literary Society.

"Girls do be quiet".

"Oh dear who is ill upon this hall?" "No one, Esther and Lillian are just trying to get some rest. They have seen so much of each other lately that they are thoroughly exhausted and have to retire to their room, and then too Nilla is coming up soon and really they do need some rest."

CARRIE ASHLEY COWHERD
Gordonsville, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Camp Fire; "Cox Ranch"; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

Biff! Boom! Bang!! It's there to stay! This characteristic is one's first and most lasting impression of Carrie. Her utter lack of interest in the "gintlemen" we feel surely is caused by some disappointment in love. Carrie is staunch when once her friendship is won.

ELSIE BRYAN CRICHTON
Capron, Va.

Recording Secretary Jefferson Society Spring, '15; Vice-President Jefferson Society Fall, '15; Southhampton Club; Ellen Richards Club; Camp Fire.

"The same yesterday, to-day, and forever."

GERTRUDE CRISER
Covington, Va.

President Pierian Literary Society, '16-'17; Chairman Membership Committee Fall, '16; Corresponding Secretary Jefferson Society, '16; Vice-President Alleghany Club, '16-'17; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '16; Glee Club; Vice-President Y. W. C. A.; Editor-in-chief THE VIRGINIAN; L. O. D. A.

"Great feeling hath she of her own which lesser soul may never know God givith them to her alone."

Gertrude is a most complex, complicated medley. We haven't space to enumerate them (that is, the complexities and complications) but we do want to say that she's not nearly as fierce as she seems in this picture. She has oodles of sense, too, in spite of the fact that she's very fond of "Dummies."

VIRGINIA BRUCE DARDEN
Driver, Va.

Kindergartner; Pierian Literary Society; I. K. U. Club; W. A. N. K.

Pretty, attractive, lovable, Virginia is a true daughter of the state whose name she bears. To those who do not know her, she appears indifferent. She is very fond of eating and will invariably ask for "More".

LUCY ALICE DAVIS
Regeant, Va.

Gloucester Middlesex Club; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

"A monumental heap of simplicity and good humor."

We love to call her friend for she is worth knowing. She lends her ears to all but to few her voice. Nevertheless when she does speak she really casts forth pearls of thought.

ANNA LAWRENCE DERR
Roanoke, Va.

Roanoke Club.

Here we have a very marked personality. Anna is either a laughing frolicking child of ten, or—and not seldom—the personification of that disposition which goes with her wealth of red—beg pardon—auburn hair. Anna's favorite pastime is tracing back an interesting pedigree. One that has long offered her the most interesting study is that of "Crensky".

BERTHA GLADYS DOLEN
Norwood, Va.

Jefferson Society.

"Out of her eyes shines the light of unshelfishness."

Yes, her name is Bertha and she is bearer of joy and help wherever she goes. Nothing is too great or too little for her to do to help others. Many a tear and much discouragement has been made to vanish by her kindness, especially to homesick girls. Her good and earnest work has been recognized and appreciated by her teachers. She is known everywhere as a girl to be depended on.

LOUIS DRUMELLER
Farmville, Va.

LEE DRUMELLER
Farmville, Va.

There should have been two paragraphs, but who could separate them—even in a paragraph? They are never apart, and what can be said of one is just as true of the other. Louis and Lee are our Training School girls, and many have been the bewildered Senior teachers who have looked apprehensively for two mischievous boys and have found in their places two charming girls. Though they are always "worked to death", their sense of humor and good common sense bring them out victorious. Indeed they're both on the road to fame in art.

GLADYS DUNCAN
Ripplemead, Va.

Delta; Y. W. C. A.; Corresponding Secretary Cunningham Literary Society Spring, '16; Southwest Virginia Club; Kodak Club; Jefferson Society, '16; Cox Ranch.

"Ye could na' blame the lads for following Aye,
Because of the merry "come hither" in her eye".

True scotch lassie that she is Gladys has a twinkle in her eye that will always win friendship for her. Southwest Virginia is her paradise and she lays great emphasis on the fact that "I'm from Giles".

NAOMI DUNCAN
Lynchburg, Va.

Reporter Pierian Literary Society, '13; Dramatic Club; Glee Club; President Junior Class, '16; President Senior Class, '17; Student Government Committee; D. I. R. K.; Lynchburg Club.

"Dunks" is another one of those "Hill City" girls. Arriving at the Normal four years ago, you'd think she'd be some finished teacher. She is! However on account of some outside influence we fear that all those years of learning to teach the "young idea" will be in vain, as she has acquired the overwhelming desire to live in a little bungalow a deux.

MARGARET HOPE DUNTON
Nassawadox, Va.

Eastern Shore Club; Y. W. C. A.; Camp Fire; Tennis Club.

"Hang sorrow: .Care'll kill a cat."

This is Hope's motto. She is a happy-go-lucky girl, who never worries about anything. I don't think she will honor her profession for any length of time because she has a "Frank" admirer.

KATE FLEMING EDMUNDS
Lynchburg, Va.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority; II A.; Delta; F. A. N. G. S.; O. H. R.; Assistant Business Manager THE FOCUS, '15-'16-'16-'17; Censor of Argus Literary Society, '16.

Katie, more commonly called "Miss Poosy", is a well known figure about S. N. S. She is recognized by her continuous stream of conversation. During her two years here, she has made more friends than most of us could if we stayed a life time; in mischievousness and cuteness, she is all that we could wish.

TENA FERGUSON
Boykins, Va.

Ruffner Society; Camp Fire Girl; South Hampton Club, '16-17. President South Hampton Club, '16-'17.

I'll be so glad when note day is passed.
Then all of my "Burdens" will have rolled away.
After all life is what we make it,
So I will be happy and gay.

LUCILLE GARTER
Stony Creek, Va.

R. S. T.; Ellen Richards Club; President Sussex Club; Ruffner Debating Society; Deutcher Sprachverein.

"Never hasting, always resting,
Glad in peace and calm in strife."

Lucille is very quiet and reserved but once you get below the surface you find a heart of pure gold. Her weakness is her great curiosity. Let anything happen on the halls and you will see her run.

M. LUCILLE GEDDY
Toane, Va.

Cunningham Literary Society; Treasurer of Deutsher Sprachverein; F. I. F. I.; L. N. 82; Appomatox Camp Fire Girl; Mamebtosa Bromigrolees.

"Sheila" is a regular math-shark. She knows all about Alkarasmi and all those old men who discovered cube root and things. She can spiel forth Latin, too, and declares that Vergil's description of Orcus is perfectfully wonderful, even if she couldn't sleep after reading it. You'd think from this that she is awfully bookish and dullish, but she isn't at all. Just the reverse. And giggle—don't whisper it to the Training School children, but when she gets started she can even take the cup from them.

VIRGINIA CARTER GRAVES
Norfolk, Va.

Wah-wah-tay-see Camp Fire; Membership Committee Y. W. C. A.

"A gem of purest ray serene".

We have in Virginia a typical southern girl—unassuming, modest, and refined, with a gentle dignity which adds charm to her sweet disposition and pleasing personality.

BESSIE BOOKER GREENE
Stoney Creek, Va.

Deutscher Sprachverein; Ellen Richard's Club; Bifo Cacoclu; Sussex Club; Ruffner Debating Society; Wah-wah-tah-see Camp Fire.

Bessie Green Bunker Hill's greatest joy is composing poetry about Marian, but life can't be all poetry, for other people will like Marian, and there are such things as chemistry, and civics in the world!

SUDIE GREENWOOD
Vernon Hill, Va.

Her disposition is as sunny as her hair. If this has anything to do with teaching, well—Sudie will surely be a success. She is very much interested in Home Economics, and she thinks seriously of making this her life's work.

RUTH GREGORY
Norfolk, Va.

Mamebetosa Bromigrolees; Secretary French Club; Wah-wah-tay-see Camp Fire.

Ruth is quiet and reserved, but those who have her for a friend are fortunate indeed. All the Course IV. Latin girls say that she is a living wonder, for she can read Latin like a native Roman. Her work here has been excellent as shown by the number of "A" tickets which she gets.

GLADYS HANSBROUGH.

Jefferson Society; Champion Tennis Club; Camp Fire Girl.

"Must I work?. Oh,
What a waste of time."

"Gay" little girl that she is, you would never think it. Strangers thinks she is very sober, but her friends have sufficient proof that she is "Gay". Blushing may be mentioned as her chief accomplishment, and she can do this unusually well.

AILEEN FRANCES HAYES
Bena, Va.

Basketball Team, '15-'16, '16-'17; Vice-President Ruffner Debating Society, '15; Secretary Ruffner Debating Society '16; Gloucester Club.

What is there behind that smile? A jolly disposition, to be sure. Aileen can play basketball too. If you do not believe it you should have seen the Junior-Senior game. The only fault she has is an enormous appetite, which, if it continues to increase, will result in her being called Hog (shire) by everybody.

LOUISE VIRGINIA HENDRICKS
Dendron, Va.

Pierian Literary Society.

"A face more sweet
Ne'er hath it been my lot to meet."

Louise is a girl whose equal is not found in many a day. Those who worked with her know what a pleasure it is because she is ever willing to help some one else. She has made such good marks while here, that we know she is going to succeed in whatever she does.

MARY HESTER
Lynchburg, Va.

A kind, sweet, unobtrusive, little soul is Mary. Around her there is always an impalpable reserve, yet one feels it all the same. She hath a kind heart, and we feel sure that in her future work out in the state, she will always be characterized by that same sweet seriousness of purpose that has made us love her here.

MARGARET PINDER HIGH
Whiteville, Va.

Recording Secretary Ruffner Debating Society Fall, '16; Kodak Club.

There was once a lady named High,
Who came from Carolina near by.
A Tarheel she was,
Like a Tarheel she does,
And a Tarheel she'd be if she'd die!

JONNIE J. HINER
Staunton, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Business Mgr. THE FOCUS '15-16, '16-'17; D. I. R. K.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Blue Ridge Club; Junior Committee Student Government.

"Write me as one who loves the Focus."

"Oh, say Mister. Wait there a moment. What is your name? Don't you want to advertise in the Focus?"

"Er-r-r- Well I am sorry but you see I don't get enough Normal School trade to justify it. You know I keep the Pool Room."

JULIA SAMUEL TRAVIS HOLT
Hampton, Va.

Gamma Theta Sorority; W. A. N. K.; Recording Secretary Athenian Literary Society Fall '16; Senior Student Government Committee; Love Set Tennis Club; S. A. B.; Cotillion Club; Poster Club; Hampton Club; Y. W. C. A. Committee.

Such a long name for this little girl! Julia's main hobby is her love for nature scenes, but she loves not the art as much as she does the "Painter"! Although every night found Julia wending her way to "Gym" to dance (and she surely could do that thing), she never failed to make that big A on her tickets!—for further information we refer you to statistics.

HELEN WILSON HORTON
Whaleyville, Va.

Ellen Richards Club; Ruffner Debating Society.

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.

Happy, laughing, fun-loving-well, that's Helen. One of her chief characteristics is the art of seeing the funny side of everything. Her mirthful giggle is often heard. She has made many friends here who will always remember her with affection.

CONWAY HOWARD
Delton, Va.

Class Prophet; President's Council; Secretary Student Association, '14-'15; Junior Vice-President Student Association, '15-'16; Senior Committee Student Association, '16-'17; President Cunningham Literary Society, '17; Censor Cunningham Literary Society, '15; President Blue Ridge Club, '16-'17; Captain Fourth Year Basketball Team, '14-'15; Junior Basketball Team, '15-'16; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Chairman Devotional Committee Y. W. C. A.; Vice-President Ellen Richards Club, '16--'17; Critic Jefferson Society, '16; Reporter Southwest Virginia Club, '14-'15; Secretary Southwest Virginia Club, '15-'16; Arts and Crafts Club; Secretary and Treasurer of Ad Kiya Camp Fire.

"Who is that coming up the hall, making all that fuss?" "Oh, that's just Tish reciting some of Shelley's poems."

RUTH CATHERINE HOWARD
Hampton, Va.

Kindergarten; Hampton Club; Wah-wah-tay-see Camp Fire; Bifo Cacoclu.

"Here's to the girl with a smile
That makes this bubble of life worth while."

Truly Ruth possesses the qualities that make, and keep true friends. Such a good mixture of fun, gaiety and earnestness. She is just the one to respond when a fellow needs a friend.

RUTH DIGGS HUDGINS
Port Haywood, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; D. I. R. K.; "O. H. R."; Cotillion Club; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

First discovered on the N and W, bound for Farmville. My "Roomie" for two years, and believe me, "she's a good un". Here's to Hudgins—a good old scout and a friend worth having! But say, can anybody tell me why she's always so eager for mail?

MARY ROUSE HUTCHINS
Portsmouth, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; D. I. R. K.; Vice-President Portsmouth Club; Finance Committee.

Well, I wonder where Mary Rouse is! Who knows? Nobody. But everybody who knows her can guess. She is either hanging around room 135 or at the "Movies" with the star occupant. It's her only weak point. But there's just one more mysterious thing about Mary Rouse. She can get more credit for the little work that she does than anybody on "White House". Everybody likes her for she is always old Mary Rouse, over and over. The state is going to find a girl who is going to give her very soul to the class room while she is in there, provided "Jack" doesn't interfere. He predicts a brighter future for Mary Rouse.

GWENDOLYN JACKSON
Lynchburg, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Vice-President Lynchburg Club.

The name would signify a fairy queen to some but to those who know her best 'tis just "Jacqueline", a sweet and modest little girl.

Not only do we predict that her fame as an artist will be known far and wide, but surely, one who is such an admirer of (Oliver) Wendell Holmes, will in the near future be recognized as a literary genius.

GRACE EVANGELINE JOHNSON
Stewartsville, Va.

Ellen Richards Club; Arts and Crafts Club.

Put her down as one who loves her school. Grace was not content with six years at S. N. S. but even took a summer course one year, and my, won't we miss her.

"What are you doing, Grace?"
"Getting up a drawing lesson."
"Where are you going?"
"Up to Jane's."

LOTTIE JOHNSON
New Church, Va.

Jefferson Society; Treasurer French Club, '15-'16; Ellen Richards Club; Eastern Shore Club.

Mis't Johnston come to us from dat Eastern Sho' of Virginnny. Miss Titia was ever faithful to her duty and now having mastered all the larnin' of de Normal College she is gwine back to dat good ole land, to impart to de generation of young tater raisers, her larnin'.

EVA ADDISON JONES
New Castle, Va.

Southwest Virginia Club; Y. W. C. A.; Camp Fire; Tennis Club.

"And while you smile, another smiles,
And soon there's miles and miles of smiles,
And life's worth while because you smile."

Laughing? Why of course! She is as happy as the day is long, except when she's in love, and the soltaire she wears this session makes her a little sober. We prognasticate that Eva will make a good movie actress, but from her present inclinations she is likely to become a doctor's wife.

MARY GARLAND KELLAM
Princess Anne, Va.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority; Benedictine.

Mary, better known as "Little Kellam", because she is small and dainty, is a very adorable girl. She is a curious piece of humanity, appearing very dignified, but you only have to be with her a short while to discover how witty and entertaining she is, as her "Pool" of wit is unlimited.

JULIA GRAHAM KEY
Clifton Forge, Va.

Recording Secretary Jefferson Society; Alleghany Club.

"Kind hearts are more than coronets."

And Julia, our little "Red Rosebud", surely has a kind heart and a patient disposition, altho her glowing locks belie the fact. It has been suggested that she get out a special edition of her individual dictionary and give it to the dear old Normal as a parting gift.

LAURA KICE
Stauton, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Assistant Literary Editor FOCUS; Dramatic Club; Devotional Committee; D. I. R. K.; Scribblers.

Some folks say Laura is a modest, retiring little violet, but if you've heard her answering in class you know how false this is and the reason for so many "A" tickets. She isn't nearly as serious as this picture, for then she was only trying to keep her dimples from showing.

MARGARET KIRKPATRICK
Mathews, Va.

Kindergartner; Corresponding Secretary Ruffner Debating Society; Ellen Richards Club; N. A. P. S.; Psychology Club; Camp Fire Girl; Kindergarten Club; Kodak Club.

Peggy cheers us even when she isn't there, for she sings like a bird (?) and in the dead hours of the night we are often awakened by her melodious "Good morning to you"! Peg is always ready to lend a helping hand, and especially willing to share her perpetual bag of peanuts.

AGNES FRANCES KNIGHTLY
Low Moor, Va.

Ellen Richards Club; Alleghany Club; Champion Tennis Club; Corresponding Secretary Jefferson Society, '17; French Club.

Who can find a girl with a better heart than Agnes? She is indeed a true friend and ever ready with a comforting word for everyone; and as for her beauty—who can deny it? Many a girl has worked for that lovely complexion and those beautiful curly locks. As her name implies, we find her a girl with a gentle and noble heart, and a character that combines beauty, goodness and kindness.

MARY ELIZABETH LAKE
Hampton, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; Hampton Club; Poster Club, '15-'16.

"Strong but resolute".

One time Elizabeth got a bid out Hampden-Sidney and she calmly declined saying she thought boys and oral reports were on a par, an oddity in the Normal School. We did not think "Liza" would be with us thru two years, for she was so homesick at first.

IRMA LEARY
Gilmerton, Va.

Kodak Club; Ruffner Debating Society; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

That "Twinsie" is an awfully good pal
We discovered long, long ago,
That she is a very accomplished "Gal"
Is a fact that we also know.
To her attractions which are many,
"Bub" is not the least bit blind,
For he writes her letters a plenty
Just any and all the time.

MARION ROBESON LINTON
Pittsburgh, Penn.

Glee Club; Vice-President Athenian Literary Society; Treasurer Junior Class; L. N. 5; Business Manager, THE VIRGINIAN; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees; L. O. D. A.

"There is no great genius without a tincture of madness".

Marian, as her hall mates know, lives by fits and starts. One day she is—and for the next three days, she isn't.

If you never happened to visit her while she was worshipping at the shrine of the annual, just consult M. High as to how long you should stay. Anyway, by much calculation and consultation with J. Merritt she managed to keep the books "some" straight.

ANNIE HARTWELL LOVING Lovingston, Va.

Blue Ridge Delegate Spring, '15; Fourth Year Rep. Student Government, '14-'15; Librarian Glee Club, '14-'15, '15-'16; Secretary Ellen Richards Club, '15-'16; Reporter Pierian Literary Society Spring, '16; President Ellen Richards Club, '16-'17; Treasurer Normal League, '15-'16, '16-'17.

This is a very little girl to have such a weighty problem to solve. For the life of her she hasn't yet been able to decide which is to play the most important role in her life, politics or religion, for although she is by nature very fond of anyone, religiously inclined, especially Parsons, she is also intensely interested in what seems to us Boggy politics.

ROSALIE MAIN
Norfolk, Va.

Vice-President Athenian Literary Society Hall, '16-'17; Critic Athenian Literary Society, Spring, '17; Mission Study Committee.

"True as steel, sincere, and independent".

Rosalie is considered one of the most charming and attractive girls in the Senior class. Altho' she seems quiet and demure, she is far from it, for when a joke is to be played, or a "pie-bed" to be made, she is the ring leader.

EUGENIA LUNDIE
Danville, Va.

B. O. M. O.; E. A. T. S.; Dramatic Club; Vice-President Cunningham Literary Society Spring, '16; Critic Cunningham Literary Society Fall, '16; News Editor THE FOCUS, '16-'17; Chairman Social Committee Y. W. C. A.; Reporter Senior Class; Director of Spree Club.

When we hear "best all round", we immediately think of "Jitney". She is always brimming over with mirth and fun from morning 'till morning. There's nothing too good, that we can say about her. She's a real, live girl —is "Jitney".

ELIZABETH CHALMERS FULTON MALCOLM
Lynchburg, Va.

Lynchburg Club; Psychology Club; Vice-President Jefferson Society; Kodak Club; Critic Jefferson Society; Senior Basketball Team; Glee Club; Vice-President Deutcher Sprachverein; Scribblers; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

Whew! What a long name for such a small girl, but she's not in the least abashed by it. That is one of her most striking characteristics—her charming lack of self-consciousness. She is talented, too, and generous with it. "Elizabeth, wont you write a poem for the Focus?", or "Won't you help me with this write-up?", or "Please draw this page for the Annual", are often heard around her way. With an overwhelming vocabulary, she is always ready for anything. She is ever resourcefull, original,—Oh well, as one of her teachers put it;
"Age will never wither, nor custom stale,
Her infinite variety".

VERNA MARSHALL
Charlottesville, Va.

President Jefferson Society; Critic Jefferson Society; First Vice-President Argus Literary Society; Vice-President Albemarle Club.

Verna is a peaceful soul, and loves all quiet ways;
Her voice is soft enough to keep us wondering what she says.
Yet, with all her quietness, an efficient lass is she.
And well up in Education, and as smart as she can be.

EDNA MAE MASSENBURG
Hampton, Va.

Love Set Tennis Club; Junior Basketball Team, '15-'16; Hampton Club; Senior Basketball Team, '16-'17; Appomatox Camp Fire; Reporter Ruffner Debating Society, '16-'17.

Edna, whose middle name, by right is "Lucky", always knows how to shun Mrs. Harris after light bell. Her true character is known to her best friends only. What a dear, lovable girl they think she is!

JULIETTE GILMORE MAYO
Hopewell, Va.

Treasurer Ruffner Debating Society, '14; Vice-President Ruffner Debating Society, '15; Critic Ruffner Debating Society, '16; Representative of Ruffner in Open Debate, '16; Psychology Club; Better Speech League; Kodak Club; Scribblers; N! A! P! S!

Juliette has the dintinction of being the most intellectual member of the Senior Class, but we would not have you believe her a bookworm. Nay, far from it! For wherever a good time is in order, there you may expect to find Juliette. Nor is she lacking in the romance her name implies. Or why, pray tell us, is our Juliette so interested in the "Hampton" Club?

VIRGINIA MAYO
Staunton, Va.

Secretary Senior Class; Second Vice-President Pierian Literary Society Spring, '17; Assistant Editor-in-Chief THE FOCUS, Fall, '16; Senior Student Government Committee; Glee Club; Devotional Committee Y. W. C. A.

"Devoted, anxious, generous, void of guile, And with her whole heart's welcome in her smile."—That's "Gin"!

ROSE E. MEISTER
Hampton, Va.

Vice-President Ruffner Debating Society, '16-'17; President Hampton Club; Deutcher Sprachverein; Appomatox Camp Fire; Last Will and Testament of Senior Class.

Until we met her we never knew that an only child could be so gifted,—but then, she is exceptional. Rose has many admirers but we fear that she may forsake them all and become a "Tennis Champion".

LILLIAN VIRGINIA MICKLE
Nathalie, Va.

Treasurer Y. W. C. A., '16-'17; Delegate Blue Ridge Conference, '16; Missionary Committee Y. W. C. A., '15; Treasurer Jefferson Society Spring, '15; Treasurer Jefferson Society Fall, '16; Recording Secretary Jefferson Society Spring, '16; Athenian Literary Society; Ellen Richards Club; Halifax Club; Ad Kiya Camp Fire.

There was a wee maiden named Lillian Mickle,
Whose inclinations were not at all fickle,
She treasured the funds of the Y. W. C. A.
But her treasure in the Y. W. C. A.
—What shall I say?
She holds most dear.

FLORENCE MIDDLETON
Rich Creek, Va.

Treasurer Dramatic Club; Ellen Richard's Club; Southwest Virginia Club; Champion Tennis Club; D. E. M.; Buffalo Camp Fire Girl; Social Service Committee.

Florence Purdum Middleton, is the way she signs her name;
But we all know her as plain Flo, and like her just the same,
For she is very likable—she is so good and kind,
And you would hunt for many a day—a better girl to find.

AGNES MILLER
Forest Depot, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; Glee Club.

"I'll be merry and free,
I'll be sad for nobody".

Who played that joke? Don't you know? Why it was Agnes Miller. This young lady is always in some kind of mischief, and never seems to grow tired of playing pranks "and doesn't any more care" what people do to her. If she can help you she will, and you may feel sure that her advise is worth listening to.

FRANCES MOOMAW
Roanoke, Va.

Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority; Mu Omega; Delta; Reporter Glee Club; Arts and Crafts Club, '15; Dramatic Club, '15; Assistant Business Manager THE FOCUS, '15-'17; Blue Ridge Club; Ellen Richards Club; Southwest Virginia Club; Delegate Blue Ridge Club, '16; Chairman Sub-Detional Committee Y. W. C. A.; Morning Watch Committee Y. W. C. A.; Leader of Cotillion Club; Vice-President Senior Class; Corresponding Secretary Cunningham Literary Society Spring, '16; President Cunningham Literary Society Fall, '16; President of Roanoke Club.

"A good looker, a good talker, and a good friend".

MOLLIE CATHERINE MOORE
Farmville, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; Glee Club.

Town's Girls' Committee Y. W. C. A.; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

Mollie is a winsome, hazel eyed little lassie, and when we consider her from all points of view, we are forcefully reminded of the old saying, "The best of goods is put up in small packages". She is quiet and dignified but always ready for a good time! For one so small and shy she is very "Doughty" of late,—especially on Friday and Sunday nights.

AGNES CHRISTINE MURPHY
Lynchburg, Va.

Buffalo Camp Fire Girl; Corresponding Secretary Jefferson Society; Champion Tennis Club.

Behold a vertiable Pollyanna. She even finds something to be glad about in the myraid hearts that have fallen victim to her golden curls and brown eyes. Everyone who sees her wishes he could play this glad game with her. She's a staunch friend to the absent ones, and they never lack a champion when Agnes is around.

LOTTIE MAY MYERS
Cambria, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; French Club; Southwest Virginia Club; Chairman Mission Study Committee Y. W. C. A.; Assistant Exchange Editor THE FOCUS; Ad-Ki-Ya Camp Fire; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend of man."

We know this is her motto,
She lives it every day;
Her life's an inspiration
To her friends along the way.

But here's a little message
For Ira, Heller, and Ray—
"We hate to have to tell you,
But she's ours forever and aye".

ANNE LILLIAN OBENSHAIN
Roanoke, Va.

Annual Member South Atlantic Field Committee Y. W. C. A., '16-'17; President Pierian Literary Society Fall '16; Exchange Editor FOCUS. '15-'16; Editor-in-Chief FOCUS, '16-'17; Student Committee, '15-'16; Glee Club; Blue Ridge Delegate, '16; French Club; Scribblers; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

Lillian's sunny disposition and talkative manner have made her famous throughout school. She has that rare gift—one which we all envy—the genuis to be loved. Read above the list of responsible positions she has held, and you will find that she is popular with the students and the faculty, as well as the most popular member of the Senior Class.

JESSIE BLAIR OVERTON
Norfolk, Va.

Wah-wah-tay-see Camp Fire; Morning Watch Committee Y. W. C. A.; Champion Tennis Club.

"Like glimpses of forgotten dreams".

Though Jessie was one of the "A" teachers, yet with her eyes she will not long be numbered among those destined to instruct the young. Her brilliance is at its height in Civics for which she has especial liking,—also for the instructor.

LOUISE OWEN
Hampton, Va.

Pi Alpha; Pierian Literary Society; Glee Club; Secretary Kindergarten Club; Treasurer Senior Class, '17; Assistant Editor-in-Chief THE VIRGINIAN; Hampton Club; L. O. D. A.

"True merit is like a river; the deeper it is, the less noise it makes."

A maiden that we all respect, for reasons more than one—
For steadfast ways and faithfulness with which her life is run;
For coolness and for courage, when we all lose our minds—
For all of these we like the maid; indeed, she is just fine.

SELMA OWEN
Lynchburg, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; Glee Club; B. O. M. O.; Lynchburg Club; D. B. C.

"Sammy" is another one of those Hill City maidens. Just the mention of that will tell you that she has every quality available; at least one would judge so from the frequent "visitors" that she has. And if you want to see her smile just mention that 10:18 train from Lynchburg on Sunday morning. Sammy has several "inborn tendencies", her main one being flirting. Of course she can't help it! Who could with those big saucy eyes, but with all her faults, we love her still.

KATHERINE LANGHORNE PANNILL
Martinsville, Va.

Treasurer Athenian Literary Society Spring, '17; Finance Committee Y. W. C. A. Art Editor of THE VIRGINIAN; L. O. D. A.

Just turn to the statistics pictures if you want to know the (ab) Normal life of Kathrina. She's our artist and pen artist, in fact she can do anything she tries to do, and this she accomplishes with credit to herself and her Alma Mater. But with all her literary and artistic talents, she never becomes too serious to see the funny side of life. She's a good old sport and a true old friend.

MYRTLE PARKER
Portsmouth, Va.

Recording Secretary Argus Literary Society; Scribblers; Student Committee; Dramatic Club; W. A. N. K.; Literary Editor THE FOCUS; President Portsmouth Club; Devotional Committee Y. W. C. A.

Myrtle, in all her undertakings, has shown us original and unusual ways of doing things, but the most unusual thing she ever did was, as leading lady in the dramatic club, to fall in love with the "manager". I have always thought that the less the leading lady saw of the manager the better she liked it. The contrary seems to be true.

VIVA PAULETT
Farmville, Va.

Dramatic Club; Argus Literary Society; B. E. A. N. S.

Here is "little Miss Paulette", better known as "Viva La", so tiny in stature that a puff of wind could blow her away; but so strong in her own way of expression that she need never fear the winds of the S. N. S.

PEARL PAYNE
Cumberland, Va.

Jefferson Society; Mission Study Committee.

You ought to know our Pearl! She is jolly, true-hearted, faithful, loyal and persevering. We can picture this "Gems" future career from her success in the Training School.

CLARA PEARSON

Ruffner Debating Society; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

Are you in need of a friend? Well, here she is, quiet and reserved in her manner, but ever ready to lend a helping hand. Her favorite saying, "I have some good news to tell", means either that she is just returning from a conference with Miss Murphy, or she has received a message from Blackburg. Her greatest fault is crossing the bridge before she gets to it.

JANET HOPE PEEK
Hampton, Va.

Gamma Theta; W. A. N. K.; Recording Secretary Pierian Literary Society Fall, '16-'17; President Hampton Club, '15-'16; Poster Club; Junior Baseball Team; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees; B.A.

There is not another like her! A mixture of fun, humor and common sense! In fact, she is a most delightful companion and sincere friend. Janet is the kind of girl you can depend on, the kind that does her work so quietly that you are not aware of her doing it.

MARY EMILY PEELE
Portsmouth, Va.

Tanda Camp Fire; Argus Literary Society; Portsmouth Club; Glee Club; Bible Study Committee of Y. W. C. A.

I am afraid that Mary Peach Apple Pear Banana Peele will not follow the example of the other Seniors and get a pension—for let me whisper softly—Mary has a soldier up at West Point who insists on sending her telegrams which read like this, "Navy 7, Army 15, Hurrah!", but the letters are not exactly like that for you know Mrs. Harris opens all telegrams!

MARY GOODWIN PETTIT
Roseland, Va.

Jefferson Society; Ellen Richard's Club.

"She's young but she's here".

If you don't know Mary, ask for the Senior with her hair down her back. The story goes that Mr. Duke, seeing Mary on the hall of the Training School, said: "To what grade do you belong, little maid?" Mary looking up proudly said, "I'm teacher of history in the VII. grade". Mary has surprised us all with her dignity and independence acquired in the Training School, and we all wish her luck.

NAOMI PRILLMAN
Calaway, Va.

Jefferson Debating Society.

"It is the mind that maketh the body rich".

Most of us play away too much time, but not so with Naomi. It makes no difference how well she has prepared a lesson, you will find her in the class room half an hour before class going over the lesson again. She surely believes in preparedness and punctuality.

She is very quiet and reserved but knows when to take advantage of a good opportunity.

IRENE MARSHALL PUGH
Madisonville, Va.

Cunningham Literary Society; Social Service Committee; Buffalo Camp Fire; B. E. A. N. S.

Well look who's here! Pugh. And we are not surprised either, for Irene always has the best luck in the world. She can miss class after class, but when test time comes she is right there and then's the time she stars, for she always makes a home run. Her work never worries her in the least.

SALLIE RAWLINGS
Norfolk, Va.

Alpha Sigma Alpha; Mu Omega; F! A! N! G! S.; D. I. R. K.; Secretary Cunningham Literary Society; Cotillion Club; Basketball Team, '16; Dramatic Club.

The first thing you notice about Sallie "P" is her big grey eyes but after you have known her a while, you see many other things equally as attractive. Her personality and cordiality of manner have won the hearts of us all. She says she is going to teach, but from appearance, she'll teach only one subject and that will be a certain "Reed-er".

RUTH ANNA REYNOLDS
Blacksburg, Va.

Jefferson Society; Southwest Virginia Club.

Behold this young lady, that takes only one hour to fix her hair and another half to pat it. Ruth's long suits are spelling?—and talking about the "boys at home". No one can ever accuse her of being lazy, Why? Because she spends all her time trying to outwail Maude Powell, and to know more about English than Mr. Wooley.

Ruth doesn't seem to know whether she will teach or not; however, with her perseverance and good will we anticipate much success to her.

MARY ETHEL RIVES
Norfolk, Va.

Kindergartner; Argus Literary Society; Mission Study Committee Y. W. C. A.; President I. K. U. Club; Glee Club.

If you are looking for the friendliest girl what is, just yell, "Mary Rives"! There you will find our lady of the deep brown eyes who is always glad to see you, and who must have been the original Pollyanna for she plays the glad game like an old timer.

ALMA ROBERTSON
Norfolk, Va.

On account of illness, Alma was forced to leave school before the completion of her Senior year.

HATTIE F. ROBERTSON
Spout Springs, Va.

Treasurer Cunningham Literary Society Spring, '17; Jefferson Society; Spree Club.

Hattie is just the kind of girl you need to know. You might thing the cat had her tongue, but wait until you know her and you will think she has both her own tongue and the cat's. Hattie has the habit of looking wise and we have found that she knows a lot, especially when it comes to Formans Advanced Civics. She is very conscientious in all her work, and when the work is over she is ready for a good time. In fact she is just a good all round girl.

RUTH BLAND ROBINSON
Appalachia, Va.

Reporter Argus Literary Society, '14; Second Vice-President Argus Literary Society, '15-'16; First Vice-President Argus Literary Society, '16-'17; Jefferson Society; President La Cercle Francaise; Literary Editor THE FOCUS, '15-'16; Kodak Club; Ad Kiya Camp Fire; Devotional Committee Y. W. C. A.; Delegate to Student Volunteer Conference, Farmville, '15; Blue Ridge Delegate, '15; Southwest Virginia Club; Secretary Dramatic Club, '16-'17; Glee Club; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

Science, French, and English—
She's proficient in them all;
Our Ruth, so gay and jolly,
And graceful too—and tall.
We hoped she'd join our faculty,
But now it is too late;
At the University this summer
She's bound to meet her fate.

MARY SNEAD SANDIDGE
Lynchburg, Va.

Kindergartner; Lynchburg Club; Mission Study Committee; H! A! M!; Wah-wah-tay-see Camp Fire; Kindergarten Club.

"The girl worth while is the girl who can smile when everything goes dead wrong".

Mary surely did right when she took the kindergarten course. Her sunny disposition, talent for drawing, and willingness to help, will aid her in whatever she does. She is both practical, dependable, and a most desirable girl with whom to work.

RUTH SERPELL
Pelington, Va.

"It's hard for you-uns and we-uns,
It's hard for we-uns to part;
It's hard for you-uns and we-uns,
'Cause you-uns has we-uns' heart."

You would never have tought Ruth would get a case, but girls change as well as styles, so consequently in her Senior year Ruth's voice has been heard ringing through the halls; "Evelyn, will you go to the movies with me?"

ALMA EDITH SHORTER
Madisonville, Va.

Jefferson Debating Society; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

"Bye, bye, girls. I'll see you later". Yes, yes, that is Alma on her way to see Miss Kennedy. I'm sure that when she, our most conscientious little senior, completes her work with her ninth grade English girls, she will be able to teach 'most anywhere. Her greatest ambition, however, it to teach in Birmingham, Alabama. Wonder what the attraction is?

MARGARET MUNFORD SINCLAIR
Hampton, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Hampton Club.

Generous, sincere, and conscientious; these three words sum up her whole character.

FLORENCE SMITH
Amelia, Va.

Amelia Club; Second Vice-President Pierian Literary Society; Finance Committee Y. W. C. A.; Spree Club; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

A year in New York does different things to different people. It gave Florence enunciation and a good Palmer Method of handwriting—and heart writing, too, we have heard it said.

If one were called upon to describe Florence in one word, I think that word would be—Straightforward.

STUART SNEAD
Cartersville, Va.

Y. W. C. A.; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

We all have heard that old saying, "Laugh and the world laughs with you." This is true of Stuart. We love her for what she really is, for she is the one whom we seek when in trouble, and from her we catch the smile which lifts us over the gloomy path.

EMILY VIOLA SPENCE
Portsmouth, Va.

Tanda Camp Fire; Athenian Literary Society; Secretary and Treasurer Portsmouth Club; Finance Committee Y. W. C. A.

Emily is another one of those girls from Portsmouth-by-the-sea. What is her favorite study? "Civics"???? If you should happen to hear anybody stirring at five o'clock in the mornings you could easily guess that it was Emily getting ready to study for a Civics test. Nevertheless she is a sweet and lovable friend.

Perhaps you won't be surprised when I say that she has the art of capturing hearts. If you don't believe it ask her about her "Specials" and long distance calls.

BERENICE INEZ SPENCER
Crewe, Va.

A cheery little soul is this little girl, she sings, she smiles, and worries not at all; yet, she's thoughtful, frank, and as good as can be. Tell a fib? Oh, no!! That never would do except in cases of emergency!!!!

CARLIE DOUGLAS STEPHENS
Vinton, Va.

Glee Club; First Vice-President Pierian Literary Society Fall, '16; Publicity Committee Y. W. C. A.; International Kindergarten Union; Roanoke Club.

"If I am your friend, there is nothing too much for me to do."

There's a girl that we must know,
For staunch support though weal and woe;
And if at any time a friend we need,
Carlie is that friend indeed.

JESSIE ALLEN STRICKLER
Petersburg, Va.

Kindergartner; Glee Club.

"Who long ago robbed the birds
Of all the songs they ever sang".

Not only has this maiden robbed the birds but as a Glee Club girl she has charmed Miss Munoz. Those who know her best call her "Jess", a name that seems to suit this independent, willful but capable student. She is in doubt at present whether to be a Grand Opera Star, to specialize in kindergarten work, or to say "Yes" to the momentous question.

ETHEL LILLIAN SURFACE
Roanoke, Va.

Argus Literary Society; Glee Club; Dramatic Club.

Eyes that gleam with love for classmates,
Thousands love her for her own sake.
Helps us thru her many talents.
Ethel is a girl unusual,
Lovelike, happy, sweet and valiant.

MAUD SUTHERLAND
Rocky Mount, Va.

Maud is a very quiet and studious little lady. She is exceedingly obedient to the Home Department and always "floats" to bed at 9:30. We hope she will not contract any disease from her pet "germs" that forever beset her path.

MAXINE E. SUTHERLAND
North Garden, Va.

President Albemarle Club, '16-'17; Publicity Committee Y. W. C. A.; Treasurer Albermarle Club, '15-'16.

Quiet, demure, and sincere are the words that describe Maxine. Her sunny disposition and big heart are entirely out of proportion to her small stature.

LEVISE THACKER
Carter's Bridge, Va.

Secretary Albemarle Club; Jefferson Debating Society.

Can S. N. S. turn out poets? Yes Indeed! If you don't believe it just read over Twinsie's shoulder one of those letters in verse. Twinsie is not only a first class poet but also an artist. The hard work she does for Miss Coulling must certainly bring results, maybe a rival of Michael Angelo. We are inclined to believe Levise has been religiously inspired sometime during her Senior year, else why is she so interested in "The Little Minister"?

KATHERINE ELIZABETH TIMBERLAKE
Orange, Va.

Blue Ridge Club; Vice-President Ruffner Debating Society, '16; Psychology Club; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

Behold! Here is Liz! Don't everybody speak at once. Liz is really the biggest bluffer in the class, and gets away with it, too. She just looks dignified and has a sort of I-could-tell-you-if-I-would, air. You'd never think Mrs. Harris caught her every night scooting in the door after light bell, would you?

LUCY SANDERS TREAKLE
White Stone, Va.

Although Miss Treakle has been told that she would never make a successful music teacher, we are sure that she will always be an expert at making out monthly reports for the fifth grade.

Lucy is not afraid of work, and is an earnest, energetic, and active worker in everything she undertakes.

DOROTHY TRUITT
Suffolk, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; B. O. M. O.; Spree Club; B.A.

"Have you anything to eat?" The figure which approached us on Board Room Hall had just emerged from 127. We all know who this was—Truitt. "I am perfectly furious", she yelled as she walked on down the hall. Anyone hearing Truitt say, "I am perfectly furious", would not think of it as she uses this term for being hungry, tired, and sleepy. Truitt is a good old girl tho, with a big heart and she'd do anything for a person in trouble. She has got her "B.A." Degree and is very proud of it.

GLADYS THORNTON TUCKER
Clifton Forge, Va.

Alleghany Club; Program Committee of Jefferson Society; H! A! M!; Morning Watch Committee; Wah-Wah-tay-see Camp-fire Group; Mission Circle.

"S is for Silence,
Far sweeter than sound,
But we never enjoy it when
Gladys is around."

Gladys is a bright, sunny, frolicsome, good natured girl. She is ever ready to lend a helping hand. There may be many things in which Gladys excels; but above all is her ability to talk.

ALTA VASHTI TURNER
Drewryville, Va.

Ruffner Debating Society; South Hampton Club.

Alta is little, but when it come to making a noise she is always present. She is very fond of keeping others awake after light bell, and all her troubles end with a laugh.

ANNIE FORD TURPIN
Boydton, Va.

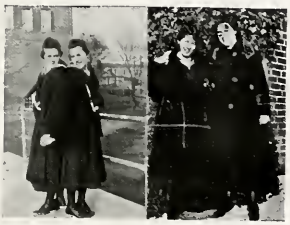
Athenian Literary Society; Finance Committee Y. W. C. A.; Glee Club; B. O. M. O.

Despite her late calling hours, she's just all right! If you have a bad case of "blues," call Annie Ford, number 22, and she'll drive it away with her jolly good humor and her witty jokes. You can find no stronger, truer, more dependable, girl in the Normal. This has been proved by her successful career in the Training School, and her hosts of friends among the students and teachers.

MARY EMILY UPSON
Vinton, Va.

Y. W. C. A., Roanoke Club.

You can tell by Mary's expression that she is a quiet and studious little girl. When the nine forty-five bell rings, you can always find her working. In spite of the multiplicity and arduousness of her tasks, she always finds time to enjoy "Life".



LOUISE VADEN
Lynchburg, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Kodak Club.

"A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is innocent".

Louise's timidity and modesty often prevent her from being out spoken in class, but when others fail her unusual intellectual ability always comes to the rescue and saves the reputation of Course II. girls.

GRACE SALE WALKER
Bedford, Va.

Ruffner Debating Society; Ellen Richards Club; Treasurer Buffalo Camp Fire, '17; Champion Tennis Club; Le Francaise Cercle; D. E. M.; L. D. K.

Grace seems quiet, but if you have the "blues", just go to see her, and your "blues" turn into smiles. She is attractive, sweet, and what else could we say, except, that her favorite dessert is in a form of "Rice"?
And now this ends your Normal School days,
We'll miss you in a thousand different ways.

MARY ELLEN WHITE
Portsmouth, Va.

President of Y. W. C. A., '16-'17; President of Argus Literary Society, '16; President of Dramatic Club, '16-'17; Secretary of Dramatic Club, '15-'16; Basketball Team, '15-'16, '16-'17; Critic of Argus Literary Society, '16-'17; Glee Club; Nonpariel Tennis Club; Senior Committee Student Government, '16-'17; W. A. N. K.; Blue Ridge Club.

If you want some one to play basketball, be leading man in the dramatic club, sing in the Glee Club, serve on the student committee, and do anything there is to be done for the Y. W. C. A., and do all these things well, just come to Mary Ellen. Then too you can find in her something a little better than all these put together, a good, warm friend.

MIRIAM WHITEHEAD
Norfolk, Va.

Athenian Literary Society; D. I. R. K.; E. A. T. S.; Mamebetosa Bromigrolees.

"Little Whitehead" is all to the good. She has the name for being one of those independent girls, but is not so much so, to those who know her well and know her good qualities. This name has stayed with her during her stay at S. N. S. but she still likes the "Big Ones", if it does not agree with her own name. She is a good sport when it's time for fun and doing things she "ought" to do.

MARGUERITE M. WIATT
Gloucester, Va.

Pierian Literary Society; Love Set Tennis Club; Senior and Junior Basketball Teams; Membership Committee Y. W. C. A.

'Tis a solemn fact that Marguerite is an attractive girl. I'll tell you why it is so, first because she is fond of athletics, secondly, because she is funny and original, and thirdly, because she has freckles. Athletes are always fair and square in everything; funny and original people are the ones who put the joy into life; and when a funny, original athlete has freckles, she just can't help being lovable.

ETHEL THORNTON WILLEY
Hampton, Va.

Secretary and Treasurer of the Hampton Club; Treasurer of the Ruffner Debating Society, Fall, '16-'17; Appomattox Camp Fire; Spree Club.

"If all the virtue is in those who are tall,
Then Ethel Willey surpasses us all."

Those who know "Longie" have not failed to appreciate her sterling qualities and this makes us wonder the more why she should always say, "I am perfectly miserable"! We think it is merely from force of habit.

KATHLEEN SYDNOR WIMBISH
Nathalie, Va.

News Committee Y. W. C. A., '14-'15; Finance Committee Y. W. C. A., '16-'17; Blue Ridge Delegate, '16; Vice-President Halifax Club, '16-'17; Reporter Athenian Literary Society, Spring, '17.

Whenever we hear the name of Kathleen we always think of a little girl dressed in a blue serge middy flying around, the Normal School supremely happy and absolutely contented with life. She attends strictly to her own business unless she ses a classmate who needs her and then "Kathleen" is the last thing she thinks about. She is thoroughly generous, good natured, amiable and has a will that is worth while. This old girl is just the type who always makes good in what she undertakes.

DANA BEALE WISE
Cape Charles, Va.

Kindergartner; Y. W. C. A.; Eastern Shore Club; Ruffner Debating Society.

Dana seems to be enthusiastic over her work and loves every one of the Kindergartners—both good and bad. She wears a smiling face and seems to be as happy as a lark. Anyone on West Main can vouch for this, for she begins singing the first thing in the morning and keeps it up until late at night, when Mrs. Harris kindly requests her to save that tune for the next day.

KATE LUISE WOOLDRIDGE
Roanoke, Va.

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Vice-President Cunningham Literary Society Fall, '16; Critic Cunningham Literary Society Spring, '17; Vice-President Glee Club; Assistant Business Manager THE VIRGINIAN; L. O. D. A.

"Learning by study must be won."

Kate's most noticeable trait is her determination to achieve whatever she undertakes. While she is considered just a little conceited, her ever present good humor and infectious giggle have won her many friends.

HARRIET ADELIA WOOLDRIDGE
Amelia, Va.

Glee Club; Critic Pierian Literary Society Fall, '16; Chairman Town Girls' Music Committee Y. W. C. A.; Treasurer International Kindergarten Union; Amelia Club.

"There's a language in her cheek, her lip:
Nay her foot speaks."

A dainty creature full of wiles,
Of dancing feet and charming smiles,
Possessing charms of calm, good wit
And all the ways of how to "sit".

MATTIE ZIMMERMAN
Lynchburg, Va.

B.A.; Treasurer Athenian Literary Society, '16-'17; Basketball Team, '15-'16, '16-'17; Baseball Team, '15-'16, '16-'17; President Lynchburg Club.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

This can certainly be applied to Mattie. Whenever you want her, she is always right there, and ready to help you in any way that she can.

Mattie is true to the very bone. She is good natured and is some dancer. She is all to the good, in fact, so good that she can boast of a B.A., and has only been at the Normal two years.

Class Poem

I am the voice of the classes, long gone, and now almost forgotten,
I am the voice of the present, the class that goes out to the morrow,
I am the voice of the future, whose miriad, unseen faces,
Loom like the shadows of treetops, sharp on the shade o'er the window.
Hearken, Ye People, and list to the swan-song of those that are going!

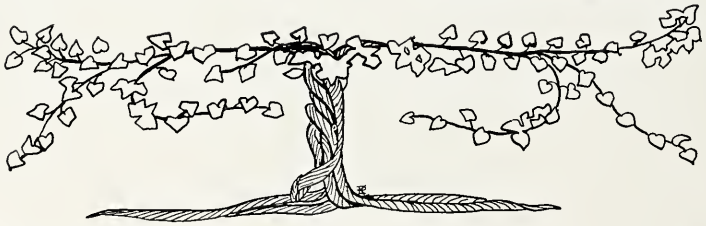
This is the song of my going, bright visions of love and of service,
Of faith and of conquering power, of footprints to leave by the ocean
Of time! Aye, the bright, golden glory of youth as I look o'er the landscape.
Scorning the grey and the sodden, eager for golden and crimson,
Weighing the choice of each pursuit, catching at glittering baubles,
Nor knowing that Fate soon may turn me in irresistible movement;
Crushed into dust in a moment lies all of my puff ball of fancy!
Catching at grey, disillusioned, my grey too, has crumbled to ashes.
Crown my head, all ye peoples, with laurel, with myrtle, with bindings of purple.

I am the voice of youth, in me is the hope of the nation.
I am the spirit of passion, of frenzy, unreasoning madness.
I am the heart of the planets, eternally new and upspringing.
Calm is my soul and untroubled by dreams of ambition of peoples,
Yet I am ever present in the hearts of those who have risen.
Higher than stars have I fixed my chosen abode for the ages!
I am enduring forever, the music of spheres is my heart-beat.
I am the voice of the aeons, the center of rhythmic world-motion.

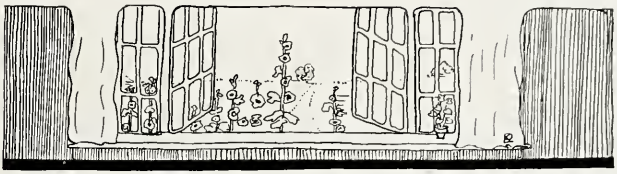
Deck me with garlands. Ye Peoples! Praise me with timbrells and dancing,
I am the glorious present, the past and the gift-laden future.
Time knoweth not of my going, yet I die with the flames of the sunset.

Mourn for my going, with ashes, with sackcloth and ashes, O, mourn me,
With beatings of breast and the moanings of hearts that are broken with anguish,
For I am the golden and crimson that I stretch forth my hand to, unattaining.
I am in myself, what I long for, the glorious spirit of youth.
I am the voice of the classes, long gone and now almost forgotten!
I am the voice of the present, the class that goes out to the morrow!
I am the voice of the future, the mirad unseen faces
That press on, innumerable shadows and presage of things that are coming!
Hearken, ye people! Give ear to the swan—song that tells of my going.

ELIZABETH C. F. MALCOLM.



One Version of Love



IT was Saturday morning, but very unlike most Saturday mornings at Glen View. The halls were alive with girls calling one another to hurry down, for the practice would soon begin. Already there were a great many girls from all classes out on the athletic field, waiting for the word of the physical director, when they would then try out for the several stunts that would take place at the Annual Field Day, which was to be held two weeks later.

Up in her room Genevieve Livingston, known by all the girls as Gene, heard the excitement and buzz below, and she smiled as she slipped into her gymnasium suit. She would not hurry down, for she knew that when she did go, all eyes would be turned toward her and greetings would meet her on every side. Now Gene was not vain, but she was Glen View's star athlete, and she knew it, for had she not in the two pears previous broken the high-jumping record, hurdled with the most perfect form, and won for the class the relay race? She was also forward on the Junior team and the best dancer in school.

Gene took a hurried survey of herself in the mirror as she tied her stray straggling locks into her middy tie.

"No wonder", she mused, "that the girls are all crazy over Charlotte Crenshaw. She is pretty. And look at my stringy hair, my unaristocratic nose, and my freckles. Why, if I do say it, my brown eyes are the only things that do me justice. Charlotte only entered school this term and is just a Sophomore, and yet she is one of the leaders, already. But anyway, I don't reckon she will out do me in athletics."

And as she ran down the steps she had a mental image of Gene Livingston wearing the big school sweater that was to be given to the girl winning the greatest number of points on Field Day. But as Gene approached the athletic field she became aware that there was already a center of interest. "Good! Good!" came the cries of the girls who were gathered around someone. Gene could not distinguish who it was that was vaulting high into the air. Then came the sharp whistle of the director and the crowd fell apart to reassemble in their class groups. It was then that Gene recognized the central figure to be none other than Charlotte. Throughout the entire practice her eyes followed Charlotte, and she lacked her usual spirit and vivacity. The girls noticed this too, and although her class stuck by her, she could see the admiration for Charlotte growing.

That night when "the bunch", gathered in Gene's room for the customary chat, of course Field Day was the topic.

"I tell you", cried Mary, "Charlotte is a wonder, and you'll have to work to get ahead of her, Gene."

"Yes, yes, that you will," chimed in Bessie and Ruth.

"I'll stick by Gene, she's won before and, I know she will again," cried loyal little Nancy.

Only Gene knew how the words stung. Her pride was hurt and she was not at all sure that she would win again. She wanted to say something about Charlotte, something that would hurt her, but, no, it was bad enough to think evil things in her heart.

As the days passed the practice continued and the two girls, Gene and Charlotte, put every spare minute into athletics. Still that envious spirit influenced Gene's naturally sunny disposition until she almost hated Charlotte Crenshaw.

Finally, the day set apart, dawned fair and clear. Banners and pennants were flying and among the shouting, singing, throng of spectators, the contestants came down, but it was with a misgiving heart that Gene came. She wanted to run away at the last minute, but it was in her unwritten creed never to go back on anything she had once undertaken. Would they never begin? She wanted it over with, for it must come.

At last! Through the megaphone comes the announcement of the high jump and the contestants stand in line. One by one the jumpers are knocked out, until only four are left. Five-feet-five, another down. Five-feet-seven, another. Only Gene and Charlotte are left. It is Gene's turn—can she make it? Five-feet-nine—over she goes. Charlotte follows, clearing the same height. Five-feet-ten—,Gene makes it again. Charlotte's foot touches the rope, but she is over—no, the rope has fallen!

"Gene! Gene!" come the shouts of the Juniors. "Over again, Gene!"

Once more Gene tries and just clears five-feet-eleven—that is her limit.

Now the hurdles are on! Over and over them they go, each with a marked beauty of grace and splendid form. Gene's enthusiasm has returned and with it her pride. Now she is the same old daring, almost reckless Gene. She just skims over the hurdles to see how near she can come to missing, and yet not miss. But, behold, as she takes the last one, with seeming victory in her eyes, her toe touches the hurdle and down it goes! But Charlotte comes out victorious.

"It is of no use!", cried Gene to herself in despair.

The stunts came and went leaving Gene and Charlotte with an almost even number of points. But Gene did not now care, she had given up hope, and besides, she did not care for victory by a hair's breadth, she wanted it full fledged. The last thing was the relay race. As Gene stepped dispritedly into place, little Nancy rushed up to her and whispered, "Our class, Gene, has never been defeated. Do your part to help her now."

Gene could not but do her best for her class. She had never before run as she ran that day. The rivalry between the Juniors and Sophomores had always been intense, and now excitement ran high. Gene was leading the Junior line, and not four feet behind was Charlotte at the head of the Sophs.

"Juniors! Juniors!", came the shouts from one side. And from the other, "Sophomores!"

Gene spurred on. She was no longer thinking of herself. "The Juniors must win! The Juniors must win!", kept singing in her ears, until before she knew it, she had passed under the rope, and tumbled into Nancy's arms, with Charlotte two feet behind.

"Oh, Gene, you've won the sweater", cried Nancy in glee.

"Oh, I don't care a snap about the sweater now," said Gene. "It's the Juniors who have won. Nancy, I've been a big goose all the time not to know that our Camp Fire Law is true when it says, 'Love is service for others so deep that self is forgotten.' "

SHANNON MORTON.

Last Will and Testament.

Know all men, (eke all women), by these presents, that we the Senior Class of 1917 of the State Normal School, Farmville, Virginia, on this the 4th, day of June desiring to make disposition of the innumerable privileges and pleasures enjoyed by us as members of this institution do make, ordain, and declare this our Last Will and Testament:

Item 1—To the Seniors of next year, we bequeath our quiet, dignified manners, our irreproachable "professional attitude", and a perfect "apperceptive basis".

Item 2—To them also, do we leave our conspicuous and enviable seats in chapel. May they realize the responsibility and honor thereto appended.

Item 3—To the poet member of the faculty, we leave, as becomes his dignity, a permanent seat in the Home Office with a "Ford" at his command.

Item 4—To the Juniors, we leave the infinite joy and bliss that accompanies Senior Seminar and symposiums. We wish now also, to introduce, recommend, and will to you our old friends, Messrs. Rousseau, Pestalozzi, Thorndike, and Dewey.

Item 5—To Miss Munoz, we leave a life-size dummy of the average school boy that she may better demonstrate to her Method's Class means of securing head tones and—discipline.

Item 6—To your tender mercies, O frequenters of the "Gym", we leave the faithful old piano which has served us and our predecessors thru the slow and dignified measures of the folk dance and the gay and crashing strain of the latest "rag".

Item 7—To the Student body in general, we leave a large measure of "esprit de core", most valuable in chapel but by no means to be ignored in other phases of school life.

Item 8—To each member of the faculty, we bequeath a nice brown leather bag in which to carry poetry, notes, checks, and any other weighty objects of which they may be possessed.

Item 9—To the Teaching Seniors, heads of departments, and to whomsoever else it may concern, we leave a drawbridge at the Training School crossing.

Item 10—To the Teaching Seniors—we leave a book written and copyrighted by us containing "teacher's and pupil's aims", written in most desirable English and guaranteed to please the supervisors.

Item 11—We are proud to leave with you several members of the Class of 1917 who will be the first to earn a degree in this institution, the Farmville Normal School.

Item 12—To our Alma Mater and Her President and all who have contributed to bring us to the supreme joy of these, our commencement days, we give our love and loyalty.

Signed sealed, published and declared by the Senior Class of 1917, as our only and last Will and Testament, in the presence of and witnessed by:

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

CATHARINE RIDDLE LAURA MEREDITH SHANNON MORTON

The Fortunate Trio who will be the first to take the B.S. Degree in Education from S. N. S.

Three maidens all of noble mien and true
Shall tread the pathway to the years to come
Striving to win their goals and seeking from
Our Alma Mater a priceless gift.
You
Be steadfast, strong, and tho' but few
Leave some trace tho' but slight, in all the lives
Of all the girls and show "He wins who strives."

These be your opportunities and here
Are things worth striving for. God grant that ye
Come thru the fire unscathed, that ye may be True foll'wers of the standards held so dear.
Yours be the gift to carry on the flag,
To cheer the wav'ring feet that often lag.
Our Alma Mater, be it yours to see
Pressing unto those years that are to be.

Dr. Jarman, B.A., President,
On reforming our conduct was bent;
He held very strict views
On the states of our shoes,
But never said more than he meant.

Samuel Page Duke, training school,
His frontal bone shows he's no fool,
And he looks very wise,
Forbids middy ties,
When we Seniors make teaching the rule.

J. Merrit Lear, M.A.,
Accused us of leading astray
A very good teacher,
Vocation, a preacher,
Himself, shocking statement to say.

Jimmie M. Grainger, the best,
He's truer than all the rest,
Tho' he articulates
Long enough for the Fates
To spin, weave and cut, 'tis professed.

M. B. Coyner of History
He teaches us how to kiss, you and me,
With an airy peck
On the back of the neck,
But just think what we miss, you and me.

Raymond Long, Dustrial Art,
Is strong in affairs of the heart,
We must appreciate
'Cause we participate
Is the doctrine he knows off by heart.

Grover T. Somers, P-S-Y,
Likes the home office, but why?
Is it dear Molly P.
Or Miss Mary White C.
That proves the lure to his eye?

Miss Pierce is a regular hiker,
On old institutions a striker,
For farmers' wives,
She talks and strives,
And anyone can't help but like her.

Miss Barto, poor dear, has some A.B.'s,
Barto Adored if you please,
Though the distance be wide,
Yet they rush to her side,
In order to help her to sneeze.

Miss Wheeler, reading enlightens,
(Sometimes, very rarely she frightens)
Through a misty pane,
She sees more than the rain,
And fancy her real world doth brighten.

"So Nice and Fresh and Cool"

A Vassar girl, writing home, said:

"We are going to have a Hallowe'en spread here Friday night, and Orange Jell-O is to be served for the dessert.

JELL-O

is so different from fudge and gingersnaps and the other things we eat all the time—so nice and fresh and cool to relieve the monotony."

There are seven pure fruit flavors of Jell-O: Strawberry, Raspberry, Lemon, Orange, Cherry, Peach, Chocolate. Each 10 cents at any grocer's.

Little folders in Jell-O packages contain all the instructions anyone needs in making the "made-in-a-minute" Jell-O dainties, but we shall be glad to send you the fine new Jell-O Book if you will favor us with your address.
